LIGHTNING KILLED HIM AS HE SAID HE WASN'T AFRAID

Remarkable Tragedy During Terrible Thunder Storm Six Miles West of Calgary

CHARLES EMERSON DEAD

He and His Employer Were Struck—One Was Uninjured, the Other Killed

Calgary, June 20.—A most remarkable tragedy took place about six miles west of the city last evening during an electric storm, whereby Charles Emerson was instantly killed by lightning. During the storm the lightning was unusually vivid and seemed to shoot with forked tongues through the air. This, however, the only fatality reported so far.

Mr. J. C. McElin, who conducts a dry business near Crandell's brick yard, west of Calgary, and his hired man, Charles Emerson, were crossing the road about a hundred yards from the house when an unusually sharp flash of lightning flashed across the sky.

Emerson asked McElin if he was afraid of lightning.

McElin replied: "No, are you?"

"Not a bit," answered Emerson. "I've been struck several times before."

Both were struck to the ground. Emerson almost at once died. Emerson was dead. The electric light shined the hair on the back of his head, passed down his body, tearing the shoes from his feet.

Mr. Pope was summoned by telephone and went to the scene of the tragedy, but found that the victim had never breathed after being struck.

Emerson was a young man, 25 years of age, from Eastern Canada, and in the employ of Mr. McElin for eight days, having come from the Athabasca district, where he had a house. A coroner's inquest will be held today.

LONDON WAS MADE TO RUB ITS EYES

Fireettes Procession the Great Political Demonstration Since Reform Bill

CANADIANS IN THE LINE

Two Hundred Women From This Country Each Carried a Sheaf of Wheat

London, June 20.—The British suffragettes have made good their full promises at Saturday's big parade in London. Ten thousand women who wore the ballot marched from St. James Embankment to Albert Hall, where a monster mass meeting was held in support of the woman franchise bill, newly drafted on constitutional lines and recently introduced into the House of Commons.

The processionists came from all parts of the United Kingdom. Included in the special delegation, including Misses O'Connell, grand-daughters of the "Liberator" of the olden time, Canada presented a contingent of almost a hundred, each carrying a sheaf of wheat.

There were 500 women scientists, doctors, teachers and University graduates wearing their robes; hospital nurses in striking uniforms of purple and green and white; and, in the front, the summer dresses were worn by the majority, giving the procession the appearance of a holiday parade. There were mill girls, stenographers, and all there to emphasize the demand for the franchise. There were nearly 500 women in prison gowns, and they had "done time."

Miss Drummond, the grand marcher, rode a horse at the head of the line, accompanied by the Hon. Mrs. Haverfield and Vera Holme, as well as all the rode artists. The place was among the forty bands was given to the Drummond fire corps of the Women's Social and Political Union.

MINISTER'S TRAVELLING EXPENSES, MORE TRIPS AND EXPENSE ACCOUNTS OF FORMER MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS

How Can These Things be?—Would not a Royal Commission Assist Greatly in Clearing the Matter Up?

Referring to several articles which have appeared in the press of the province of late, calling upon Mr. Cushing to explain certain transactions, which he has loftily declined to do, the Strathcona Plaindealer says:

"It looks as though another Royal Commission will be necessary, when the Waterways Act is closed up, to investigate the administration of the Public Works Department during the regime of the former minister."

The Capital has already suggested several matters which such a commission might investigate. A perusal of Alberta and British Columbia newspapers of the latter part of 1909 furnishes several others that could be taken up with profit.

The Calgary Daily Herald of December 2nd contains a despatch from Nelson, B. C., giving an interview with Mr. Cushing in which this appears:

"Speaking of the recent Government victory in B. C. he said it showed that the people of B. C. have complete faith in the administration. He hoped to get through to Victoria tonight, but returns to Nelson next week, where his firm was having a case before the Supreme Court."

Under date of December 7th a report appears of a meeting of lumbermen, which is headed "Great Gathering of Millmen at the Coast. Called by the B. C. Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association for the regulation of prices."

The Capital is informed that Mr. Cushing started on his trip to B. C. about November 29th and returned about December 8th. During that period he attended to his law suit at Nelson and it is stated that he was present at the meeting of lumbermen. Mr. Bennett, who was counsel for the lumbermen when prosecuted for carrying on a combine for the regulation of prices, has declared it should be remembered that Mr. Cushing was a member of that combine. However, it is for the suggested commission to investigate just what Mr. Cushing's business was during that trip. If it was of a private nature, why did the honorable gentleman charge the province $8 a day during the whole of the time he was absent (10 days, $80), and certify it was all on government business?

Another item of expense which will bear investigation has to do with a trip to Vermilion, about the middle of October, for which he charged the province $5 a day. It appears that on the very date when the honorable gentleman says he was in Vermilion, he was reported as taking an active part in the reception to William Jennings Bryan in Calgary.

In the words of "The Good Book" from which Mr. Cushing has stated he is ever ready to quote, some people are compelled to ask: "How can these things be?"

MACKENZIE MADE ONLY BRIEF VISIT

Interviewed Premier Regarding Bond Guarantee and Took Run About Town

CALGARY LINE NOT TIED

President of C. N. R. Expects That C. P. R. Injunction Will Be Dissolved

"No, I don't think the C. P. R. will succeed in tying up the work on our line into Calgary for more than a few days longer," said William Mackenzie, president of the C. N. R., to a Capital reporter on Saturday afternoon.

It was a very brief and businesslike interview that the president of the Canadian Northern Railway granted to the reporter. Mr. Mackenzie arrived in Strathcona on the afternoon train from Calgary. He jumped into a waiting automobile and was hurried to the government buildings, where he had an interview with Premier Sifton, in which details in regard to the government guarantee of the C. N. R. lines in the province were discussed.

Then followed a half hour tour of the city after which Mr. Mackenzie spent another half hour in talking to various railway officials on the station platform. Then for a few minutes he put a hurried visit to the northern part of the city, being driven a long way up First street by Magistrate Cowan.

On his arrival back at the station, a reporter from the Capital was waiting for him, and Mr. Mackenzie chatted with the newspaper man for a couple of minutes before he took his departure. He is differently experienced on the C. P. R. injunction, Mr. Mackenzie stated that the whole trouble was over a minor detail and as this had been settled now, he thought that the province would be no differently experienced would be no difficulty in getting the injunction dissolved.

The plans for the general route of the line were approved at Ottawa long ago," said the railway magnate, "and we filed the detailed plans and started work on the line before they were formally approved. Seizing upon this technicality the C. P. R. secured the injunction, but as these plans had been passed now I expect that we will be able to continue work on that line before the week is out."

According to Mr. Mackenzie, 600 miles of new C. N. R. line will be built in the west this summer, the greater part of this being in Alberta. The work to be done in Alberta is as follows:

CROPS IN SOUTH ALMOST RUINED

Continued Dry Spell Has Done Serious Damage South of C.P.R. Main Line

MAY BE TOTAL LOSS

North of Didsbury, where Rain Has Been Plentiful Crops Are All Right

According to several gentlemen who arrived in Edmonton last night from the southern part of the province, the crops in the district south of the C. P. R. main line and east of the Macleod branch have been almost ruined by the continued dry spell.

"Everything is in a very bad state down there," said one man. "From present indications it would seem as though the crops in that part of the country will be a total loss. Even in the event of heavy rains coming now, it is very doubtful if it is not too late to do any good. Down there, you know, the season opened very early, and the dry weather and hot winds that have been so prevalent for the past month, have just about killed all the growing grain."

Another gentleman in attempting to describe just how bad conditions were down there, said:

"It is so bad that even the newspapers should not make mention of it."

The country that is affected, is of course only a small portion of the province. From Didsbury north all the crops are in a most flourishing condition. Rain has been fairly plentiful, and everything points to bumper crops. Then, also in the district west of the Macleod branch of the C. P. R. there is every indication of a plentiful harvest.

NOT AFTER ANY OFFICE

Leaders Say That They Are Out Just to Help the Farmers

Although the "third political party" of Alberta has been rather quiet for the last few days, it has not died an early death yet. The committee appointed to organize the movement of whom Mr. A. T. Cushing of this city is a member, has been busy arranging for meetings in the near future. A meeting is to be held in Edmonton the first week in July, at which the platform of the party will be thoroughly discussed, and possibly a local committee appointed.

Following this meeting it is the intention to hold mass meetings all over the province of those interested in the movement. According to one of the leaders in the embryonic party the main idea will be to work for the interests of the farmers and the labor men. It is, they say, to be a party without any ambitions toward political aggrandizement. Further, it will support, they say, candidates who subscribe to its politics indifferent of what political faith they may be. Whether or not the new movement will gain enough supporters to make its influence felt, time alone will tell.

BUTCHART BREAKS OUT INTO POETRY

Rain Was to Blame, But It Has Also Had Beneficial Effects

SMALL VOTE ON BYLAWS

The Expectation is, However, They Will All Be Carried by the Burgesses

Commissioner Butchart is a poet. One might not have suspected it, unless one looked carefully at those artistic locks that are brushed so carefully away from that noble brow, but it is so. And it was the rain that moved our Commissioner of Finance to rhyme.

When a reporter from the Capital called at Mr. Butchart's office on his usual rounds this morning, he asked: "Well, how do you like the weather, Mr. Butchart?"

The commissioner threw back his head, and then without any warning started off:

"The rain is falling on the street. It wetens every one you meet. 'Tis better far than shilly shally. And does more good than blazing heat."

The reporter staggered, grabbed his hat, and fled.

All Don't Rhyme, Though

The rain does not move everyone to poetry though. Many people are very glad that it has come. One gentleman from the country just south of Edmonton, said that he would like to see it rain for the next forty-eight hours. If, of course, it is of great benefit to the growing crops and has come just when the ground was getting dry again.

Another effect that the rain will have on the city will be to make the vote pulled today a very small one. From gossip picked up around the polling booths, however, it is likely that all the bylaws will carry.

TERRIBLE STORM SWEEPED NEW YORK

It Followed Immediately After the Big Parade in Roosevelt's Honor

FIVE PEOPLE KILLED

Minor Accidents Were Reported From Every Part of the Great City

New York, June 20.—On the heels of the reception to Roosevelt came a deluge. Two hours after the parade that had escorted him up Fifth avenue had disbanded, the whole metropolitan district was swept by the most violent storm in months. In twenty minutes 60 of an inch of rain fell while the wind attained a velocity at times of 58 miles an hour.

Five deaths were reported. Four others are believed to have been drowned in the capsizing of a fishing smack off Long Island, while scores of others had narrow escapes. In Brooklyn Frank Ross was killed by an uprooted tree. In Flushing, L. I. Julius Joske, 15 years old, was killed by lightning. The engineer of a Long Island brewery was buried under a smoke stack which the lightning toppled over. He was killed. An eleven year old boy in Brooklyn was fatally hurt by falling plate glass.

Only the coolness of the performers and employees of the Forepaugh & Sells Bros. circus prevented a panic in the tens spread on Manhattan field. Under the first blast of the wind the huge tent began tugging at its guy ropes. The spectators began to rise in their seats, but the performers continued their acts and the circus hands hurried through the throng, warning all to remain seated. Minor accidents without end were reported to practically every police station in the city.

Aged Ontario Woman Makes Mighty Effort to Avoid Tobacco Smoke.

Chatham, Ont., June 20.—Mrs. Sarah Neville, of Dresden, aged 80 years, walked from Dresden to Chatham recently, a distance of 17 miles, to renew a writ in the county court clerk's office. Mrs. Neville has been doing this once a year for three years. She does not care to ride on trains, because she objects to tobacco smoke in the depots and the cars. When she arrived in Chatham she filled the County Clerk's office filled with lawyers, all of whom were smoking. The office had to be cleared and aired before she would go in and do business there. She started from Dresden early in the morning, and arrived in Chatham about ten o'clock. She walked back to Dresden in the evening.

HERCULES THE JUMPER

Horse Cleared 7 Feet 4 Inches, Which is a Record

Toronto, June 18.—"Hercules," the fine jumper owned by Amelius Jarvis, made a record performance at the Galt Horse Show last week; in fact, it is doubtful if the feat has ever been equalled in the equestrian world. He took the following seven jumps, making a perfect clearance of the pole each time:

- 5 feet
- 5 feet 6 inches.
- 6 feet.
- 6 feet four inches.
- 6 feet 8 inches.
- 7 feet.
- 7 feet 4 inches.

At the last jump the pole was resting on the extreme top of the wings, and the officials standing by said that Hercules went one foot higher than that. Before taking the fourth jump, the walked alongside the pole, put his head over it, and reined a short distance, and swinging around, cleared pole in fine style. Needless to say, Hercules at every jump received the plaudits of the greatly interested spectators.

THE WAY TO DO IT

During an equestrian performance a number of ladies in the front stood up, thus obscuring the view of those persons who were seated. In vain were they collectively requested to sit down until a happy thought occurred to one of the sufferers. He called out, in measured tones: "Will the pretty lady in front please sit down?" whereupon about fifty women briskly seated themselves.

GLOOMY PICTURE OF OLD ENGLAND

Market is Glutted with Foreign Goods, Says Prominent Sheffield Manufacturer.

Toronto, June 20.—Sir John E. Bingham, head of the firm of Walker & Hall, Sheffield, England, and commander of the First West Yorks. R. E., for seventeen years, arrived yesterday afternoon at the King Edward Hotel. Sir John is a staunch Conservative, and was one of the first in the movement for first pennons for laborers, a movement he assisted by himself giving a bonus. He takes a keen interest in all branches of philanthropic work.

Sir John says that the policy of the present government is greatly injuring English capitalists, and that English manufacturers are locating in other countries. "Why, home manufacturing concerns are being ruined, and the market is simply glutted with foreign goods. The situation is more serious than many think. All the good English gold is being invested in other lands. The outlook is pretty gloomy, I can tell you," he said. "I was here about twenty-two years ago and when I landed here today I was surprised by the growth in so short a time. It is a very clean and a very pretty place," he concluded.

"Drop In Any Time."

One of the pitfalls of friendship to the standing invitation. It is easy and pleasant to say: "Come whenever you like, my dear! We shall be delighted to see you at any time; don't stand on ceremony—come whenever you are this way." But let those who receive such invitations beware. It stands to reason that an unexpected visit cannot always be convenient—the hostess is in the midst of something or other and "not fit to be seen," or her husband has rushed home to take her out somewhere and she would rather go than stay at home and entertain her dearest friend, or the luncheon or the dinner is a makeshift—very nice, so far as the family is concerned, but not exactly suitable to set before visitors. The hostess tries to be nice, but can't help showing her vexation or embarrassment. The guest perceives something indefinable in the atmosphere and is accordingly constrained, and every one is uncomfortable. Yet people still go on giving and accepting standing invitations.—New York Tribune.

INDIGESTIBLE

The young man was had taken the debutante to dinner was talking art. "Are you fond of etchings?" he asked. "As a general thing, yes," she answered, looking up into his eyes with an engaging frankness that threatened havoc to his art, "but," she added, hastily, as he started to say something pretty, "not tonight, thank you, it is rather late. A small piece of jelly will be sufficient."

SPLENDID CROWN PLACED ON STATUE

It was the Pope's Gift and Worth Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

London, June 20.—The thieves who last year despoiled the famous miracle-working statue of the Virgin in the Cathedral of Czestochowa, in Russian Poland, have never been caught. Their booty included a diamond crown, a robe sewn with pearls and various jewelled offerings, in the total value of $500,000.

Since then the statue has been bereft of ornaments, but the Pope recently presented to it a crown and jewels worth $25,000. These were ceremoniously placed upon the statue by the Papal delegate, assisted by an archbishop, eight Polish bishops and 1,000 priests from all parts of Germany and Poland.

Half a million pilgrims from the surrounding country witnessed the solemn ceremony of recrowning the statue, which took place in the Pauline Convent of Czestochowa. Afterward the statue was carried from the convent chapel to the high altar of the cathedral with a guard of honor of 2,000 people.

FIRST CRICKET
MATCH ON SAT.Bowman's Eleven Won From Weaver's Side by Close Score of 49 to 42

A scratch match between teams captained by Messrs. Weaver and Bowman, of the Edmonton Cricket club, was held in the local section on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bowman's team won out by the small majority of seven runs, the score at the finish of the afternoon's play standing 49 to 42. This is a small cricket score as the game was the first of the season. The new grounds, situated west of the golf links are a trifle rough for fielding, but as matting was used on the pitch no inconvenience was felt by the bowlers, who did remarkably well for an initial tryout. The score in detail on Saturday is as follows:

Mr. Bowman's Team
Dickens, bld. Mountfield—2.
Bowman, bld. Mountfield—2.
Eschew, cgt. and bld. Mountfield—3.

PENDENNIS WON
THE BALL GAMEWine Clerks Decisively Beaten by 10 to 1—Enormous Crowd
Witnessed Massacre

It is not often that the wine clerks get the worst of anything but something certainly happened to them on Saturday night that bordered on the tragic. The occasion was the baseball game between their revered selves, and Nat Bell's speedy aggregation from the Pendennis Hotel.

The wily Nat has been looking out for this game for some time and when his minions took the field (and everything else), on Saturday night, several well known ball players were seen in the Pendennis uniforms. There was one bright feature about the game. It was close for two innings. Then the Pendennis sluggers got to Mr. Fisher and they did help his efforts to all corners of the universe. One inept youth, Drayton by name, even made a four batter with two on bases. Shortly, for the Pendennis, was the star of the game, his batting and fielding being of big league calibre.

When the score was ten to one in favor of the Pendennis, Nat Bell, the wily pitcher, said after the game that he felt the Pendennis had nine Nat Bell's on their team the score might have been different. And we believe him.

And who do you think was the star of the wine clerks' team? Not Harry Burrage. The bright light's name was Moose Munroe. It was not his fielding that gained him renown. Far better was his dare-devil batting. Moose made the lonely run for his aggregation. He drew a base on balls by the kindness of Umlire Hank O'Day Garrison, stole second and third, and scored. He was a canted and canted on a passed ball. Chas. Satter played in the position, made famous by Ole Olsen, and was a great help to his opponents.

Darkness prevented any more than five innings being played, much to the delight of all the spectators. It is probable that the Pendennis will be looking for other fields to conquer in the course of a few days.

LANGFORD-KAUFMAN BOUT

Is Declared Off—Jeffries and Johnson More to Nevada

San Francisco, Cal., June 20.—After being in conference for some time with some of the city powers, the board of referees today announced that for Reno today to make definite arrangements as to where the fight is to be held in the State of Nevada. As a result of Rickard's announcement general movement of the fight fraternity will begin towards Nevada. Quarters have been engaged already for Jeffries at Manno Springs, while Jackson will be quartered at Lavatos Springs. Rickard also announced that immediately after his arrival at Reno he would hold conference with business men of that city, who have been holding out inducements for fight with delegation from Goldfield which is reported prepared to go to extent of offering $25,000 to hold fight in famous mining camp. Louis Bort, promoter of Kaufman-Langford fight, which was postponed until next Saturday by drastic action of Governor Gillett said that fight is off for good.

TO CATCH BALL DROPPED 1,000 FEET FROM AIRSHIP

Catcher Frank Owen, of Toronto, now of the Minneapolis American Association club, and formerly a member of the Chicago White Sox, will attempt to catch a ball dropped 1,000 feet from Glenn Curtis' aeroplane during the aviation meet here June 25. Owen says he must have three trials, and that the ball must come within a hundred feet of where he is stationed. The highest a ball has ever been dropped and caught is 342 feet from the Washington monument. Catcher Street of the Washington team performing the feat.

QUIGLEY IN CHARGE

The Edmonton ball team is now being managed by Second Baseman Quigley. Deacon White is on a business trip to Fargo, where he will be for a few days. Quigley seems to be handling the job with pretty good success.

DECOTEAU WON
THE CROSS CUPTook Over a Minute Off His Best Previous Time—Dunham
Second, Tait Third

The second race this season for the Cross Cup has been won by Decoteau, who has no equal in the west as a five mile runner. He made the journey in 27 1/2 minutes. His time was 30.25, the young Irish runner finished third in 32.24. Skinner was fourth.

It was suggested on Saturday evening by a well known athletic enthusiast, that the conditions of the Cross Cup be changed and it be made a handicap race. If it was changed into a handicap and raced for on a track it would make a much better race and provide keener competition. As it stands at present, the race is just a gift for Decoteau. If handicaps were given the different runners, it would make a better race for every body concerned.

As Decoteau and Dunham have already been selected on the team to represent Edmonton at Lethbridge on July 1st, they will take part in the five mile race as well as the other events that they specialize in.

CHESTY COX
THE OLD-TIMEREugene, That's His Real Name, is a Valuable Man for Any Team to Have

How many years constitute a ball player's regime on the diamond? inquires a fan.

Reference is immediately made to "Chesty" Cox, the irrepressible. According to the venerable hero of scores of battles, a man is never old until he is stretched cold like Bruno, after partaking of a meal of finely powdered glass.

Of course, "Chesty" has his own sense in mind. He has been playing ball so long that the wheels of his memory have become clogged. When the seventies were suggested as the time when he added color to the base ball firmament, "Chesty" grimaced sheepishly, but naively remarked that he thought it was somewhere about 1895.

"But it doesn't matter how long I have been playing," added Eugene (Mr. Cox is known as Eugene in pink tie functions and polite society), "as an athlete, I feel just as when I started in play, and I believe there are several years of usefulness ahead of me."

That sounds very reasonable enough, and his record this season will substantiate any statement that "Chesty" has not begun to topple on the downward slide.

Ever since he appeared in the north-west, "Chesty" has been one of the exalts. An inimitable coacher and a ball player through and through, he has ingratiated himself with the fans everywhere.

"Chesty" started the season as manager of Lethbridge, but owing to trouble with the directors regarding signing a couple of players which he regarded as essential, bitterness sprang up in the camp and coy Mr. Cox severed his connections with the Miners, playing one game with Regina and then fitting on the Edmonton. "Chesty" states that he had a one year contract with Lethbridge, and that he has instructed an attorney to enter suit to collect the money which he believes are rightfully coming to him.

CHAN LIKES THE ESKIMO CHANCESThinks That Deacon's Crew Will Bear Watching—Says Pete
Morse Is a Star

"Chan," writing on the sport page of the Calgary Herald, gives the following eulogy on the Eskimos.

"Deacon White, with his Eskimos, is going at a rapid pace and will bear watching. While Deak has been unfortunate as far as injury to players is concerned, he has been very lucky in the winning of games. With Brennan back in the game, Deacon is bound to be troublesome as he has got together a strong bunch, and the way Pete is covering ground and hitting puts him in a class by himself at this position.

Quigley, at second, has strengthened his infield wonderfully, as Quigley is a seasoned player, and a hard, consistent hitter. Spencer, behind the bat, is one of the league's leading catchers, and Stub can hit with the best of them.

But the biggest surprise of the club is the work of Rube Mills, the local youngster. Rube is not alone pulling off sensational stunts in the field, but leading the club in batting. With a year or two of experience and a little more confidence in himself, Mills should go ahead, as he looks good in every department of the game."

WOODS-MEADOWS

Won Relay Race at Hanlan's Point,
Breaking World's Record

Toronto, Ont., June 20.—The most interesting distance race yet held in Toronto from a spectators' standpoint was the 20-mile relay race at Hanlan's Point stadium Saturday night. The Meadows and Wood team won the world's record time after a bit more confidence in himself, Mills should go ahead, as he looks good in every department of the game."

CRIGER IS ILL

Veteran Catcher Has Appendicitis.
Will Never Play Again.

New York, June 20.—Lou Criger, catcher for the New York Americans, is suffering from appendicitis in Cleveland, Erie, and an operation may be necessary. According to the doctors from Cleveland today, Criger was taken ill Thursday night and doctors say that if the catcher undergoes the operation it will be the end of his career on the baseball field.

every respect, and the best president that any city has in this section of the country ever had. He is honest and could not be induced to participate in any underhand undertaking. He has the good of the game at heart, and before the season is over will prove that he is an ideal man for the position. Regarding the Brookins case I understand that Mr. Eckstrom has sufficient evidence for the course that he pursued.

"Chesty" is very sweet on the Edmonton club—in fact, he likes all the Alberta clubs. "They are stronger than the eastern teams and the pennant will again be in Alberta. Each club is strong with the bat and in the field, being exceptionally well balanced." (Winnipeg, Brandon, Moose Jaw and Regina have nice fielding teams and good pitchers, but they are weak with the stick.)

YOUNG MEN CAME NEAR DROWNING

Canoe Upset in Midstream and They Were Saved by Two Young Boys

A canoe appearing in the Saskatchewan River was very nearly the cause of two drownings last night.

One Broderick, of the Provincial Public Works Department, and Ernest Smallman, a mail carrier, were the principals in what was very nearly a tragedy and were it not for the timely and efficient assistance lent by two young boys, Robert Brown and Hal Taylor, who showed great presence of mind, another story would have to be told.

At about seven o'clock Broderick and Smallman put out from the Edmonton side of the river near the old Hudson's Bay fort, with the intention of crossing, and they succeeded in reaching a point very near midstream when the frail craft got side up to the swift current and started to sink.

The fact that neither of the young men could swim added to the danger while Broderick held on to Broderick.

The whole thing was witnessed by numerous spectators on the shore and many looked on in the belief that serious trouble was inevitable. In the meantime the two boys, hastily summoned an old post and with much exertion and splendid pluck, they succeeded in navigating the boat to the shore where the two young men were hanging between life and death.

Broderick and Smallman are now the worse for their adventure, but the memory of it will likely remain until they are old and grey-headed.

YOUNG IMMIGRANT SENT TO HOSPITAL

He is a Member of Family Which Arrived Here Last Saturday

A pathetic appeal to the authorities of the Rappaport family which were held in Sunday's Capital occurred on Saturday when little two-year-old Arthur Rappaport was taken to the public hospital in a very serious condition.

The little fellow was very ill on the voyage across the Atlantic and was attended by the ship's doctor. On Saturday when the family registered at the immigration hall he was very much worse, and Dr. Nichols was called in and immediately ordered the boy's removal to the hospital.

The advance guard of the family of Rappaport, which was delayed at Winnipeg arrived this morning. It consisted of the woman at the head of affairs and the youngster who first saw light on a C. P. R. transcontinental train between Montreal and Winnipeg. The rest of the family are expected along at any time.
